HORSE:

30 HAVENIR D'AZAC, grey gelding, 1995, s: Neustrien, d: Duchesse d'Azac, Breed: AC, Country of Birth: France Breeder: André Bon
Owner: Alain Prost, Paris, France

Karim Laghouag (35) is a professional rider based in Cernay La Ville, south-west of Paris. Over the last 10 years Karim has enjoyed success with young horses and came to international attention with Histoire de Triballe and Make My Day with who in 2006 he won the three-star at Barroca D'Alva and was 10th at the WEG at Aachen. With Havenir D'Azac he was selected for the WEG at Lexington last year but the combination was eliminated during their dressage test due to blood from the horse's mouth.

Karim's uncle, Pierre Defrance was an international event rider

Havenir D'Azac, a 16-year-old Anglo Arab by the French-bred Thoroughbred Neustrien out of an Anglo Arab mare by the Anglo-Arab Krac du Beziat was acquired in 2006 from rider Christine Moulis Lebecq who had produced him to two-star level. Havenir D'Azac is owned by his step-father, formula 1 racing driver Alain Prost
